

Spirit of Monmouth Running Club Constitution

and

Rules of the Club

1. NAME

- a. The name of the club is Spirit Of Monmouth Running Club (“the Club”)

2. OBJECTS

- a. To promote and encourage in a fully inclusive manner all forms of running (that is, Recreational Running, Cross Country Running, Road Racing and Track Athletics) at all levels in Monmouth and the local area.
- b. To encourage and assist each and every member to achieve his or her maximum potential and enjoyment in running.
- c. To co-operate, one member with another, for the promotion of the best interests of the Club.
- d. To provide members with team and individual competition in running and to promote running competition in Monmouth and the local area generally.
- e. To provide members with the opportunity of meeting together socially from time to time.
- f. To uphold, among members and between the Club and all other persons and organisations, a spirit of good sportsmanship, honest and honourable dealing, friendship and maximum assistance and co-operation.

3. MEMBERS

- a. Membership of the Club shall be open to adult persons who are amateurs as defined by UK Athletics / Welsh Athletics at that time, regardless of sex, age (as long as over 18), disability, ethnicity, nationality, sexual orientation, religion or other beliefs. However, limitation of membership according to available resources and facilities is allowable on a non-discriminatory basis.
- b. There must be lodged with the Membership Secretary a written nomination in such forms as the Committee may, from time to time determine, of every person who wishes to become a member, signed by the prospective member.
- c. Every person nominated for membership shall become a member if accepted as such by the Committee.
- d. Any person nominated as a Life Member by the Committee shall become a Life Member if accepted as such by the Annual General Meeting. Life Membership shall be without subscription when proposed by the Committee.
- e. The Membership Secretary shall keep a register of members and enter in it the name, address, contact details, date of birth and date of election to membership of each person who becomes a member.

- f. All members are encouraged to wear the official club colours when representing the club in competition. Where the wearing of club colours is mandated by the individual competition, club colours must be worn.

- g. A member shall cease to be a member:
 - (1) If he/she gives to the Secretary written notice of resignation of his/her membership.
 - (2) If he/she fails to pay any contribution to his/her subscription within one month and the full subscription within two months after the due date of payment.
 - (3) If expelled under the provisions of Rule 4 below.

- h. Only First-claim members of the Club shall be eligible to compete in any Club Championship event

4. SPORTS EQUITY

- a. This club is committed to ensuring that equity is incorporated across all aspects of its development.
- b. The Club respects the rights, dignity and worth of every person and will treat everyone equally within the context of their sport, regardless of age, ability, gender, race, ethnicity, religious belief, sexuality or social/economic status.
- c. The Club is committed to everyone having the right to enjoy their sport in an environment free from threat of intimidation, harassment and abuse.
- d. All club members have a responsibility to oppose discriminatory behaviour and promote equality of opportunity.
- e. The Club will deal with any incidence of discriminatory behaviour seriously, according to club disciplinary procedures.

5. DISCIPLINE

If any complaint is made to a member of the committee about the conduct of any member of the Club, the complaint shall be considered by a meeting of the Committee as soon as possible. If, on such consideration (at which the person whose conduct is in question, whether a member of the Committee or not, shall not be entitled to attend), the Committee decided that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the member concerned has committed some act, or been guilty of some default, inconsistent with the objects of the club or its best interests, the following procedure shall apply:-

- a. The member concerned shall be given an opportunity to attend a meeting of the Committee and comment on the allegation.

- b. Written notification of such opportunity shall be given to the member, either personally or by recorded delivery post addressed to their last known address, at least seven days before the relevant Meeting.
- c. The notification shall contain such details of the allegation as are reasonable in all circumstances.
- d. The notification shall also contain or enclose a copy of this Rule.
- e. At the Meeting, details of the allegation shall be put to the member and they shall be given such opportunity to reply by way of calling witnesses and/or presenting other evidence or argument as may be reasonable.
- f. The member shall then withdraw while the Committee deliberate.
- g. When the Committee has made its decision the member shall be recalled to the meeting and informed of the decision, which shall take effect immediately.
- h. The decision shall be confirmed in writing to the member, wither personally or by recorded delivery post, addressed to their last known address.
- i. If the Committee is satisfied on the balance of probability that the member has committed some act, or been guilty of some default, inconsistent with the objects of the Club or its best interests, it may:-
 - (1) Suspend them, from participation in some or all of the Club's activities for a period not exceeding 12 months; or
 - (2) Suspend them from membership of the Club for a period not exceeding 12 Months; or
 - (3) By a majority of two thirds of the members of the committee adjudicating at the meeting, expel them from membership of the Club.
